

AximusBinary trading instructions

To start trading binary options via AximusBinary trading platform, please follow the simple steps below:

1) Login to your Personal Area or go to the link: <https://personal.aximusfx.com>

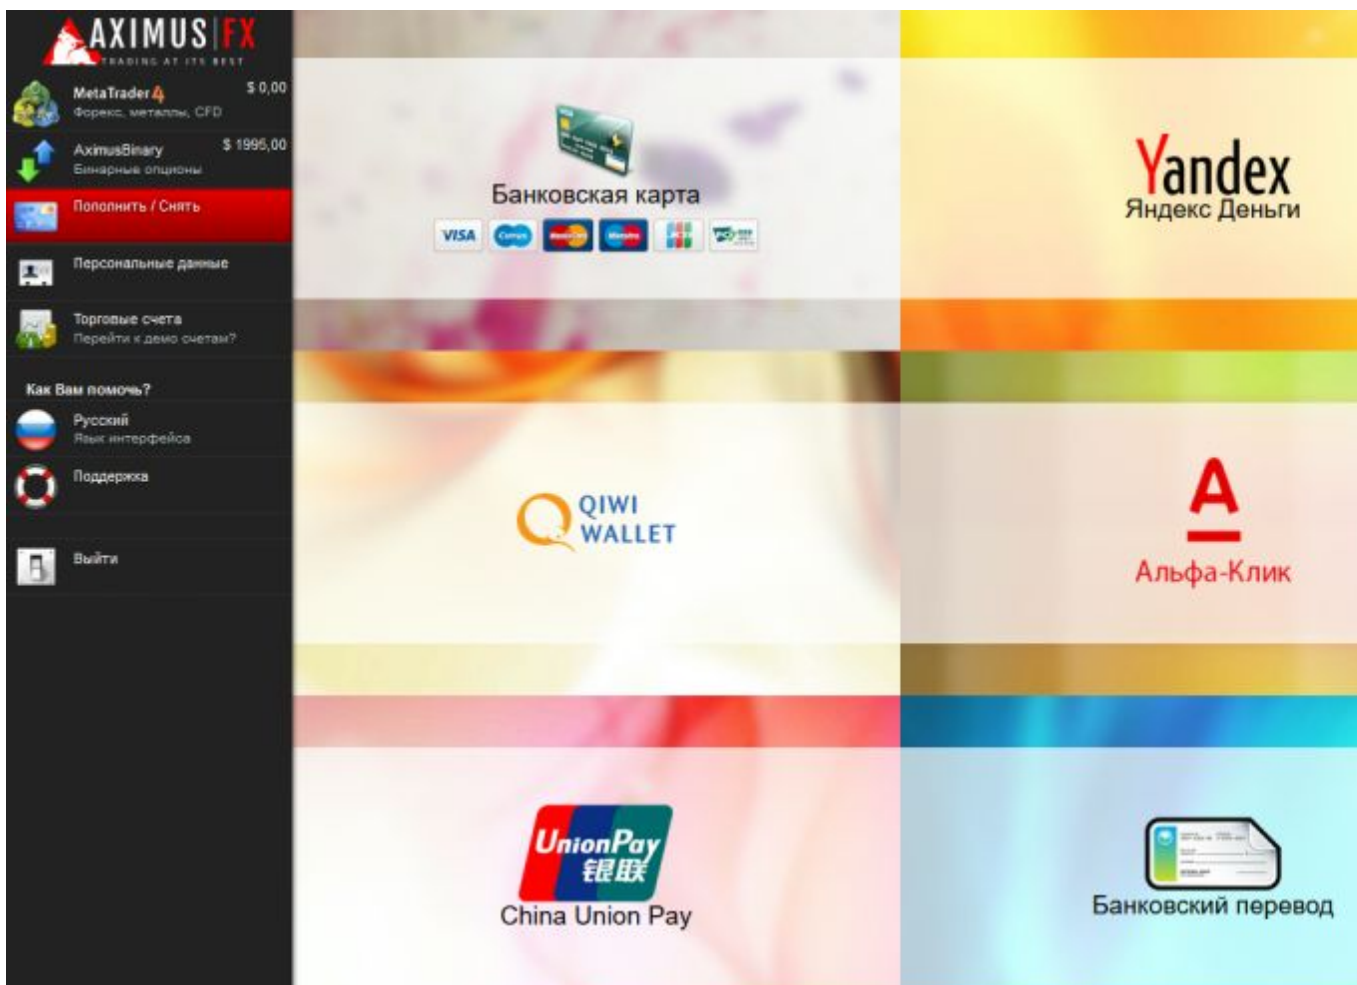

* To choose your preferred language in Personal Area, please use the menu on the top right corner.

2) Complete verification procedure of your trading account on the left side of the Personal Area main menu.

The screenshot shows the AximusBinary trading platform interface. On the left, there is a sidebar with account information and navigation options. The main area displays a selection screen for option types: 'Стандарт', 'Касание', 'Диапазон', and 'Турбо'. A red arrow points to the 'Стандарт' option. Below this, there is a trading chart for GBPUSD with a '260%' payout and a 'Возможно заработать $13.00' (Possible profit $13.00) display. The chart shows a price trend and a 'Время на сделку' (Time to trade) timer at 00:01:54. The bottom of the chart shows '54.56%' and '45.42%' indicators.

* Upload identification documents proving your identity (passport, driver's license and proof of residence)

3) Once verification process is completed and approved, please select available deposit methods to top-up your AximusBinary trading account.

Once you have deposited funds to your AximusBinary trading account, the amount of your balance will be available on your trading account. The balance amount is displayed in the dedicated section of the Personal Cabinet.

4) Go to AximusBinary and choose the type of binary options you prefer to trading.
